

Peninsula Enterprise.
ACCOMAC COURT HOUSE, VA.
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1900.
Entered at the Postoffice at Accomac C. H., Va., as second class matter.

The attention of our readers is again called to the Farmers' Institute to be held at Accomac C. H. next Monday. The invitation to be present on the occasion is extended to everyone and the subjects to be discussed will be of sufficient interest to every Eastern Shoreman to include all of them, but the meeting being called in the interest of and for the betterment of the condition of the farmers especially, they are expected, of course, to be out in large numbers on the day.

The importance of the meeting to our farmers, in our opinion, cannot be overestimated, if they come together not only to learn something on that day, but to extend their knowledge along the lines which will be pointed out to them; and that they need to get out of the old rut and get together better was clearly demonstrated through the Produce Exchange this year. They know how to raise some crops, they ought to know how to grow any crop to which their soil is adapted. They recognize the value of fertilizers, they ought to acquaint themselves with the character of their lands that they may be able to apply to them the fertilizers, which contain the ingredients they need most. They know their crops have enemies innumerable, they ought to learn how to rid them of the pests in the most effective way and at the least possible expense. These and other good results they must know, can be attained by concert or action among them, in the same or similar way in which they have sent their produce to market this year and profited thereby. How we will not suggest. The opportunity, of having the way pointed out, will be presented next Monday and every farmer, who loves his business and is looking to it not only for a livelihood but for the betterment of his condition, cannot afford to be absent on the occasion.

Since the election of Mr. McKinley the price of salt has advanced from $1.50 to $2.50 per 100 pounds, and to the price of pork, beef and mutton another cent per pound has been added. The reason for the advance in these articles, no better explanation is given than that salt and meats are both under the control of syndicates and that the members thereof in this way desired to add to their millions. That the people pay the bills, is of course, a matter of no consequence to them, and the people, who by their votes in the recent election endorsed the trusts, have no right even to protest. They knew before the election that the trust magnates contributed funds necessary to secure the election of McKinley, with the understanding that they were to have it back after the election, with millions added to it, and why should they protest? Indeed for such evidences of "McKinley prosperity" ought not all republicans be grateful? Too blind to see the inequities of trusts before election, of course, they cannot see them now. They grow wiser later though and doubtless will. If the trusts continue to impose burdens upon them in the same proportion during the next four years of republican rule that they have done in the few days since the election, they ought at least be wiser and be convinced doubtless by that time, if an empty dinner pail can do it, where duty should lead them in the future.

That the trusts could afford to contribute liberally to the republican campaign fund, the following estimate of the profit made in one year by advancing the price of beef, pork and mutton, one cent per pound should show to the satisfaction of everyone: Dried beef $15,000,000, pork $20,000,000, mutton $40,000,000. That the people though should be willing to continue a party in power which gives the trusts the power thus to rob them is beyond comprehension and can only be explained on the ground that the people are either ignorant of their rights or have not the manhood to assert them.

Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton has written a letter to Mr. Albert F. Hunt, the architect, saying that on account of the "malicious prosecution" of a woman in New Jersey he will have to temporarily abandon his plans to establish the "Winnie Davis Home" for Confederate Women at Lunenburg. Mr. Hunt drew the plans for the building. Dr. Wharton says he hopes to be able in the next few weeks to make arrangements to carry out the plans.

By a quarter of a million dollar fire, which occurred early on Sunday morning, the entire traction system of Norfolk is crippled; and ten to thirty minute trips are being made. Over sixty cars of the Norfolk Railway and Light Company, which control all the street railway franchises, city and suburban, together with the great car shed and power-house, were totally destroyed.

The Army of Northern Virginia Camp of Confederate Veterans has repudiated the action of its delegates to the last reunion in voting $250 for the erection of a monument over the grave of Jefferson Davis.

It is stated that within the next two years the Pennsylvania R. R. will expend from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 in developing the properties in the Virginias.

A Confederate monument will be erected at Hampton by Hampton Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Southern Educational Association will convene in Richmond, December 27th, 28th and 29th.

THE LIFE SAVING SERVICE.
Annual Report of Superintendent Kimball Submitted.
Washington, Nov. 13.—General Superintendent of the Life-Saving Service Kimball in his annual report says that at the close of the fiscal year the establishment embraces 269 stations.
The number of disasters to documented vessels within the field of operations of the service during the year was 364. There were on board these vessels 2,655 persons, of whom 2,607 were saved and 48 lost. Six hundred and seventy-three shipwrecked persons received succor at the stations, to whom 1,447 days' relief in the aggregate was afforded. The estimated value of the vessels involved in disaster was $3,137,800, and of the cargoes $3,342,690, making a total value of property imperiled $6,480,490. Of this amount $7,334,690 was saved and $2,235,500 lost.
The number of vessels totally lost was 61.
In addition to the foregoing there were during the year 339 casualties to small craft, on board of which were 781 persons, of whom five were lost.
Beside the number of persons saved from vessels of all kinds there were 593 others rescued who had fallen from day boats, piers and other positions of extreme peril.
The cost of the maintenance of the service during the year was $1,535,936.
The General Superintendent calls attention to the fact that the necessity of an increase in the compensation of district superintendents, who, he believes, are the poorest paid servants of the Government, considering the nature and extent of their duties and their heavy financial responsibility, and he makes a strong plea in their behalf.

EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE.
To be Called by Gov. Tyler in a Few Days.
Richmond, Va., Nov. 13.—Governor Tyler will, it is probable, in a few days call the Legislature to assemble in extra session. The time at which the meeting will take place will, it is certain, be about the 15th of January. The Governor still believes that the best mode for bringing about constitutional reforms is by a commission. He admits that the time has now passed when such a mode is possible, the people having voted to call the convention. He would, however, see fit to abandon the convention and name a commission upon whom would be devolved the duty of recommending amendments to the Constitution. The Governor thinks such a course would meet the approval of the people of Virginia. This notwithstanding the assembly by their votes ordered the assembling of the convention. There is, he is likely, the Executive thinks, some thing in the air. He thinks, in his opinion, be a diversity of views even on the franchise question. He does not think that the black belts are united on this, to say nothing of other sections of the State.

Judge Farnell a Popular Man.
Richmond, Va., November 12.—Judge Thomas Farnell, of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, is, perhaps, to-day the most popular man in the country with the women. This is due to the recent decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals holding that a woman may be the "head of the house." Since that decision Judge Farnell, who wrote the opinion in the case, has received letters from women all over the country, praising him for his wise counsel in this matter. Indeed, the learned jurist is being annoyed at the number and character of some of these epistles.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not the praise of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Wm. P. Bell & Co., Accomac C. H., Va.

JNO. W. DUNCAN, Onancock, Va., Opposite Hotel.

VIRGINIA:—At Rules held in the clerk's office of the circuit court for the county of Accomac, on the first Monday in November, A. D., 1900, the same being the 5th day of said month, William H. Coard, William F. Coard and Sallie K., his wife, Plaintiffs, against John E. Allender and Jennie S. his wife, in right of said wife, George M. Bond and Annie E., his wife, in right of said wife, Arthur R. Coard, Charles R. Coard, George Welly Coard and William A. his wife, John W. Harrison and Laura V. his wife, in right of said wife, Oliver H. Coard and Cornelia, his wife, Samuel C. Nelson and Ida V. his wife, in right of said wife, T. Esie Coard and Lella, his wife, William M. Coard and Annie A., his wife, John R. Coard and John and Arthritis T. his wife, Wm. T. Belmont and Alice L. his wife, in right of said wife, Sylvanus W. Parks and Rebecca J., his wife, in right of said wife, John Wm. Turlington, Jr., and Ella D. his wife, in right of said wife, Charles R. Coard (of Jno.) and Carrie, his wife, Missouri A. Coard, and John D. Grant and Susan E. his wife, in right of said wife, Defendants.
In Chancery.
The object of this suit is to sell for purposes of partition, the real estate of which Elizabeth J. Coard died seized and possessed containing two tracts of 100 acres and 324 acres, respectively, situate in the County of Accomac county, Va.
Affidavit having been made before the clerk of the said court that T. Esie Coard, Lella Coard, William F. Coard, Annie A. Coard, John Wm. Turlington, Jr., and Ella D. Turlington, six of the defendants in the above entitled cause, are non-residents of the State of Virginia, on the motion of the plaintiffs by their attorney, it is ordered that the said non-resident defendants do appear within fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their interests; and that this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the "Peninsula Enterprise," a newspaper published at Accomac C. H., Virginia, and also posted at the front door of the courthouse of the said county, on the first day of the next term of the county court of the said county.

Tax Notice.
Notice is hereby given that the State tax and county levy for the year 1900 are now due, and that in pursuance of law, the treasurer or his deputy will collect the following taxes and levies in said districts at the time hereinafter specified, for the purpose of collecting said taxes and levies, viz:
Appointments of John H. Hopkins: Parkley, October 4, 5 and 6, November 24.
Modestown, Nov. 17.
Hopeton, Nov. 22, morning.
Newtown, Nov. 22, afternoon.
Leemont, Nov. 23, afternoon.
Hunting Creek, Nov. 23, morning.
Accomac C. H., first day of every court.

Appointments of Edwin T. Powell: Pungoteague, Oct. 13, 27, Nov. 10, 22, 23 and 24.
Harborton, Nov. 23, night.
Onancock, Nov. 15, 16 and 17.
Accomac C. H., Nov. 27, 28 and 29.
and first day of County court and 3 days of Circuit Court.
At home, Nov. 30 and at night when not otherwise posted.
Those failing to pay their taxes before the 1st day of December, will have 5 per cent added to their bills.
The change made in the Tax law at the last session of the Legislature, which shortens the time for collecting unpaid Tax bills, will force us to collect them much earlier than heretofore at a season perhaps when money will be scarcer than now. Therefore we will advise all persons to pay before Dec. 1, 1900 and save the penalty.
Your humble servants,
John H. Hopkins, Treasurer,
Edwin T. Powell, D'y. Treas.
Of Accomac County, Va.
